A New Art Space for Local Creators

Image Credit: Lisa Robinson, water color

The Belvidere Cornerstone

(Contributed by Susan Doran)

The new owners of the Belvidere Cornerstone located in the center of Allegany County have been working steadily to renew and upgrade the property for community use.

The owners are both artists and know the importance of art education. One of the many uses of the building will be a meeting place for Artists and Authors. Local artists will have the opportunity to teach classes and show their work. Partnering with other organizations in the County like the Allegany Arts Association, they will be able to offer free and low cost art classes to children and adults.

Artist Lisa Robinson was featured at the Open House in 2019 with her painting of the building. Lisa is a watercolor artist formerly of Cuba, with ties to Angelica. Lisa's paintings showcase the architecture and landscapes of Allegany County. She finds the beauty in an old run down porch, a forgotten barn or a group of trees along the roadway. Lisa also hosts workshops on watercolor painting, drawing and outdoor sketching. You can see her work on her website at www.Lisarobinsonwatercolors.com or on Instagram at LisaRobinsonart.

Artist Jeremy Sniatecki's family has had a quiet presence at the village edge of Angelica since the 1950s. He grew up spending many weekends and summer days there, where his father currently resides. Jeremy is a graphic designer/commercial illustrator for clients around the world (including products based on Star Wars: The Mandalorian, Star Trek, Harry Potter, Lord of the Rings, etc), Jeremy hopes to retire in Angelica someday to write and illustrate his planned series of children's books. Until then, he'll be celebrating his lifelong adoration for the Southern Tier in a series of annual poster designs inspired by vintage travel ads. His website is www.jeremyscreative.com.

Visit the website www.belviderecornerstone.com to follow the progress of these and other artists and check the calendar of events for art opportunities in Allegany County.

COPING WITH COVID-19

In November, together with the CDC, HHS, and the White House; the Ad Council launched its new Coping-19 campaign to connect Americans with resources they need to cope with mental health, stressors, and personal traumas caused or exacerbated by the pandemic. Find out more about this on the Ad Council website at <https://www.adcouncil.org/all-articles/new-mental-health-resources-for-coping-with-covid-19>. The campaign has provided additional actionable tips and strategies at Coping-19.org. This list includes tapping into creative resources to support your wellness with a link to the Creativity Challenge at the Foundation for Art and Healing <https://www.artandhealing.org/stuck-at-home-challenges/>

Raised Salt Painting

Materials

Epsom Salt
Food color in varied colors
Glue
Drawing paper
Pencil
Paper plates

How To Perform:

On a paper plate, add a few drops of food color on some Epsom salt and mix. Repeat this process for all the colors. Draw favorite shapes and patterns on the drawing paper. "Draw" with glue on top of these designs and then pour the colored salt over the glued areas. Let it dry.

Indoor Balloon Tennis

Materials:

Paper plates, tape, popsicle sticks, balloons, string (optional)

How to

Tape the popsicle sticks to the back of the paper plates. Inflate the balloons. Attach the string to the wall or furniture to create a "net" line to volley the balloon(s) over.

OR simply use the paper plate "rackets" to keep the balloons from touching the ground.

To keep score— one point is given when the balloon touches the ground. Lowest score wins.

OR create your own rules as you go.

Tip: Be sure every player knows the "house rules" of the version you create before you begin.

DO A SKETCH CRAWL ~ TRY "URBAN SKETCHING" ~ "Urban sketching is a creative activity that is perfect for artists of ANY skill level. It involves drawing the world around you while on location. You can sketch out your local farmer's market, museums, buildings, concerts, parks—you name it, you can sketch it! It's a great way to document the world you live in or the attractions you visit while on vacation. This hobby is also a great way to meet new people! The urban sketching community has skyrocketed in popularity in the past ten years with sketch crawls happening all over the world (they're like bar crawls except for artists). Even if you're not the best artist, this is a creative way to safely get out and about as the weather warms up. "

David A. Howe Library Programs

Programming like book clubs & craft classes are changing from week to week. Visit their facebook page or website, davidahowelibrary.org, for updates.

Curbside Pickup: The David A. Howe Public Library, like many of our local libraries, is currently closed to the public, but offering Curbside Pickup. Books, audiobooks, movies, & more can be placed on hold and picked up at the Auditorium entrance. Craft kits are frequently available, too. To place items on hold you can call the library at (585) 593-3410, email wellsville@stls.org, or visit the Starcat website (starcat.stls.org).

If you are unsure of what you want, contact them and they can make recommendations.

Pick up times are

Mon thru Friday 12pm- 2pm & 4pm- 6pm

Saturday 12pm - 2pm

Cuba Circulating Library

Current Hours

10-6 Monday and Wednesday,

10 - 8 Tuesday and Thursday,

10-1 on Saturday.

The library is open for those who wish to come in and browse, and curbside is available for those who prefer a low contact experience.

A mask covering your mouth and nose must be worn to enter the library; if you cannot wear a mask, we can provide curbside services. As a reminder, please return all materials except for hotspots, board games, and STEAM kits to the outside book drop.

Alfred Box of Books Library

Star Talk Tuesdays

Every other Tuesday Mary Lu Wells will host a StarTalk. She will tell us what we can be looking for in the night sky. Talks will focus on things you can see with the naked eye, binoculars or small telescope. StarTalks will be recorded and available on their YouTube Channel. OR Email alfred@stls.org for the Star Talk Tuesday Zoom meeting information.

Meetings are currently planned for March 2nd, 16th, and 30th.

Regardless of spiritual status, income or address, anyone may benefit from the programs offered at the Center. We encourage and promote participation in our programs as a means of serving the local community and gaining invaluable skills. We acknowledge that we conduct our work on land stolen from the Haudenosaunee confederacy (more specifically, the O-non-dowa-gah or Seneca nation). We honor the proud and rich history of the Seneca nation, also known as the "Keeper of the Western Door," which currently has a total enrolled population of nearly 8,000 citizens. We honor and respect their people, past, present, and future, and affirm the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous People." Find more at <http://www.cubaculturalcenter.org/> or ph:585-209-0052
